50. Memoriams

In memory of Frank D. Adams, who died Aug. 16, 1981.

There's a little country graveyard.
In a city far away.
It holds for me memories,
of yet another day.
Of a dear and loving father
and his little towhead son
Now they are sleeping
there together
And together they seem like one.
A year has passed since you left us.
But it seems just like a day.
We know you are resting
there together.
You would want it no other way.
Sadly missed by Mama,
Bertie and Family
